ABOUT THE ACADEMY

The Wyoming Academy is designed to connect and grow leaders who are building resilient communities in Wyoming. The program includes three in-person sessions across Wyoming highlighting both large and small communities. Participants can also expect personal and professional development opportunities to assist you in moving the ball forward on an idea or project. This program was created through a collaboration between the Wyoming Business Council and Leadership Wyoming. Both organizations will play a significant role in its execution.

WHO IS IT FOR?

- Business Leaders
- Local Government and Elected Officials
- Community Leaders
- Economic Developers

“

The Wyoming Academy has given me an opportunity to network and develop friendships with businesses owners and community developers across the state, that otherwise would have taken years to develop. Attending the sessions and working together with this group of individuals has been incredibly helpful and I have already started implementing some of the methods in my work with the Sweetwater Economic Development Association.”

-Mark Cowan, Rock Springs

PROGRAM COMPONENTS

BUSINESS TOURS AND COMMUNITY NETWORKING

Sessions will offer hands-on learning experiences through business and industry tours. Meet with community leaders who have managed economic development projects. Learn valuable lessons through their experiences and knowledge.

TECHNICAL LEARNING

"Sometimes you have to re-think the things you thought you thought through." - Winnie the Pooh. Expect to learn a few new tricks of the trade when it comes to economic development, communication, strategy, and leadership.

PEER LEARNING GROUP

Your group of peers within The Academy will serve as a sounding board and peer mentors on projects and initiatives.

A COMMITMENT TO ACTION

Following each session you will have tangible areas of application to support your local team in solving community challenges. Along the way, The Academy will also give you the resources and connections you need to succeed.

EXECUTIVE COACHING

All participants will receive two sessions of executive coaching as well as access to the gold-standard personality inventory, the Hogan Personality Assessment. Learn about your super powers and how you get in the way of your own success.

FACILITATORS & STAFF

This dedicated team will guide The Academy participants on their journey. In addition to the team below being at all in-person meetings, participants can expect to hear from dozens of industry and topic experts throughout the course of the program.
